SAVANNAH, Ga. - Three members of the Armstrong Atlantic State University women's tennis team have earned All-American honors for the 2010-11 season, announced by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) on Friday afternoon.

Senior Alida Muller-Wehlau earned Division II All-American honors in both singles and doubles, as did freshman Barbora Krtickova. Freshman Aleksandra Filipovski, meanwhile, earned All-American honors in singles.

A native of Flensburg, Germany, Muller-Wehlau caps her outstanding Armstrong career by earning All-American honors in both singles and doubles for all four years of her Lady Pirates career. The PBC's Player of the Year in 2011, Muller-Wehlau went 33-6 overall in singles play and 43-6 overall in doubles play this year, earning final national rankings of No. 4 in singles and No. 1 in doubles. She is the first Armstrong player to earn All-American honors in singles and doubles four straight years since Zsafia Golopencza in 2001-04.

Krtickova, meanwhile, earns both singles and doubles honors in her debut season for the Lady Pirates. The Nove Mesto Nad Metuji, Czech Republic, native was an outstanding 33-5 overall in singles and 47-6 overall in doubles this season, also earning ITA National Rookie of the Year accolades. Krtickova finished the year ranked No. 11 nationally in singles and No. 1 in doubles.

Filipovski is the third All-American honoree for the Lady Pirates this season, earning singles honors for going 26-3 overall and finishing the year ranked No. 12 in singles. The Szeged, Hungary, native was twice a PBC Player of the Week honoree in 2011.
